

Dear Mr. Van Meter,

I hope that this email finds you well. My name is Dat Vu, currently a junior here. I just heard the news about the grant offer to me from Esse Quam Videri and I can hardly contain my excitement as well as gratitude.

I am deeply thankful and honored to receive this sponsorship from the fraternity. This is one of those times in my life when I feel so blissful and driven for my pursuit. You have enabled me to embark on a learning experience about green buildings construction in my home country, Vietnam.

If you would like to talk more about what I am doing specifically this summer, please feel free to contact with me. I am more than happy to.

Again, my deepest thanks and I hope to hear from you.

Best regards,

Dear Mr. Oleskey,

I am glad to hear back from you so soon. I am even more delighted that you had a chance to look through my body of photographic works. Thank you very much for the kind compliments. I have been to a few countries in Asia, and the photographs are from Singapore, Bhutan, China and Vietnam.

I will be working on campus during the Reunion Week for, so my schedule might be tight, but I will definitely arrange with my manager. Please let me know the time and the place that work for you during that week. I believe it will be much better to meet with you in person.

Regarding the coffee talk in the Fall, I can absolutely commit to it. It will be my great pleasure to be able to share with you what I will have garnered over the summer. Photographs will certainly be included.

I look forward to seeing you in May.

Take care,
